The Oltrepò Pavese

Villa I Due Padroni is situated in the hills of the enchanting Oltrepò Pavese area, 70 km south of Milan. This is the largest wine producing area of Lombardy and is characterised by a variation of smooth hills, panoramic views, medieval villages, castles, vineyards and forests. There are literally hundreds of small cantina's where you can try yourself the local wines like the Bonarda the sparkling Pinot Nero. In little family restaurants la mamma serves her delicious traditional dishes, like pasta and risotto. The Oltrepò Pavese has not yet been discovered by foreigners.
